

PRIMATE CONSERVATION CASE STUDIES FROM VIETNAM

Lecture by Dr. Mary Blair
Assistant director for Research & Strategy
American Museum of Natural History
New York, New York

Dr. Blair's research investigates the diversity of slow lorises throughout Vietnam as well as the patterns, scales, and drivers of the illicit trade in these amazing primates.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 2016
3:30PM
RUTH ADAMS BUILDING-001
DOUGLASS CAMPUS

Questions? contact:
ruprimates@gmail.com

SPONSORED BY:
THE RUTGERS UNIVERSITY FOR PRIMATE CONSERVATION CLUB